

Lubricant – CRC Silicone IND

Art.no.: 0541605

CRC Silicone IND is a premium synthetic lubricant designed for reliable lubrication of plastic drives and non-metal components exposed to high temperatures. It reduces friction and noise while maintaining stable performance across a wide temperature range.

CRC Silicone IND is a superior synthetic lubricating oil formulated with premium-grade silicone. It is particularly suitable for plastic drives and non-metal applications where consistent lubrication and excellent temperature and viscosity characteristics are required.

The silicone spray reduces friction and noise, supporting smooth operation in demanding industrial environments involving non-metal contact surfaces and elevated temperatures.
