

Vertical lifting clamps, non marring – IPNM

IPNM is intended for use when marks and scratches on plates, beams, and structures are not acceptable.

The jaws of the plate clamp are made from a synthetic material with a very high coefficient of friction. The clamp can be used on items with a very smooth surface, composite and surface-treated plates, or plates with a very hard and impervious surface.

Note: Always read the user manual carefully before use!

Read more about the product here:

<https://john-dahle.no/product?number=VM-2001810>