

Drain plug – BETRO–LOCK Inside Sealing Plug

This Standard Inside Plug is specifically designed for sealing holes and recesses in tanks and bulkheads, commonly used for tightening weep holes along the spool edge on ship decks. The plug features neoprene cellular rubber, which is vulcanized to ensure maximum adhesion to the sealing surface. This construction makes the plug highly effective in creating a secure and robust seal in challenging marine environments.

Read more about the product here:

<https://john-dahle.no/product?number=1160250VM>